

CONTENTS

Abbreviations	2
Preface	3
Introduction	6
Early History of Eurimbla Precinct	9
Location and Land Purchase
Location and Land Titles
The Land and its Locality Before the 1850s
The First Purchase of the Eurimbla Precinct Land
A Brief History
1851-1876 James Pearce and the First Market Garden
1877-1911 Later Market Gardens
1912-1914 Sub-division and Eurimbla Avenue
Building Sequence 1915-1927
Other Historical Events Impacting Eurimbla Precinct 1915-2017
Early Buildings and their Owners	33
1856 The Willows
1883 4 Magill Street
1888 Charles Conder – Chinaman’s Garden
1889 Pearce Bros’ Nursery and Flower Farm
1918 Commonwealth Government War Homes Acquisition
1924 Eurimbla Avenue Shops
Housing – Names, Numbers and Styles	53
From Names to Numbers
Getting around – Cars and Where to Park Them
Housing Styles in the Precinct
Renovations and Extensions
Changing Skylines – Perspectives from Eurimbla Precinct
Living in Eurimbla Precinct	81
Growing up in the Precinct
On the Home Front
Out in the Garden
Animals
Passing the Time
Lost and Found Treasures
Policemen and Prostitutes
Incidents – Alarming, Curious, Questionable, Malicious, Mysterious, Historic
A Sense of Community	117
Community Action
Belonging and Connection
Down Memory Lane	129
A Century of Construction and Community Life	167
Appendices	171
Eurimbla Precinct Houses with Names
Land and House References 2018
Sales History of War Service Homes
Two Ships Called Eurimbla
Contributors – Oral History, Memoirs, Poems and Art
Sources and Selected Bibliography	179
Endnotes	180
Acknowledgements	187
Index	189
EPHA Inc – Note	192